

33. ANNA VAN DEN HÖVEL exhibits internationally with her current series "Birdview". The bird's-eye view makes motifs smaller and powerless to her. Only the big picture of colours, shapes and materials offers the viewer a scope to perceive buildings, objects and landscapes. She combines acrylics, pigments, lacquer and materials such as sand, earth or mortar. Visit www.hoelvandenart.com and follow arthoelvanden on Instagram.

34. ERIN TEAGUE is an American visual artist who believes art can be more than something hanging on our walls. It can be a touching point for who we aspire to be in our heart of hearts, and a reminder to celebrate beauty, find the courage to be our authentic selves, and embody our daring dreamers. For more information, email erinteague7@gmail.com or visit www.teaguestudioart.com

35. JESSIE KATSUKIN TAKAMURA is a felt artist and textured graphics illustrator. Her illustration style is one that renders playfulness with various textures and cheery colours. She makes miniature felt sculptures using her experimental crafting techniques that can be transformed into accessories. Visit www.theblushykitten.com email hey@theblushykitten.com and follow @theblushykitten on Instagram.

36. CLAIRE SOWER is a Canadian painter known for her vibrant florals. Featured here, a section from a larger oil painting, "Midnight Lilies". Recently reviewed in Arabella Magazine as an "Artist to Collect", you can see her work at www.claresower.com, or contact her directly at sowerbuttc@gmail.com

37. CHRISTOPHER EADICICCO views art, particularly abstract art as an important tool both in a creative and therapeutic way to express that which cannot be expressed in words. Pictured is, mixed-media on canvas, 18 x 18", a depiction of how Christopher's transmits his emotions and thoughts directly to the medium of canvas. Visit www.christophereadicicco.com and follow @chriseadicicco on Instagram to find out more..

38. ABIGAIL BRISTOW is a Washington state-based abstract artist who specialises in geode style art on canvas, furniture and jewellery. She is a mixed-media artist who finds her inspiration in nature. She shares a business with her mother selling both their art. Follow @bristle_while_you_work on Instagram and @bristlewhileyouwork on Facebook.

39. DAVID MARK LANE, an artist and architect, distorts pixels and blends colours and forms to create artwork that feels painterly. The techniques he has evolved have created a new art form that he likes to call "primitive digital". Fine art prints available at noirgallery.co and prints and products are available at society6.com/davidmarklane

40. CHARLOTTE HICKS specialises in fine drawing; taking inspiration from poetry, myths, the natural world and her love of illustration and print! She draws each design by hand in pen combining her classic illustrations with contemporary design techniques making prints and more! Find out more at charlotte-hicks.com or follow @charlottehicksillustration on Instagram.

41. SEEDOFMEMORYART by Rebecca Leigh, an exceptional, self-taught artist based in London. Her modern and whimsical portrait style charismatically captures characters of a bygone era. Rebecca takes regular commissions from an international client base. Visit seedofmemoryart.co.uk and follow @seedofmemoryart on Instagram to discover more.

42. Otis Hu of LITTLE LAKE ART is a graphic designer and artist based in Auckland, New Zealand. Her unique abstract, mixed media pieces express her gratitude towards nature. Her work is inspired by rural landscapes, the marks on rocks, the shadow of trees and the reflection of light on a morning sea. Visit www.littlelakeart.com or follow @littlelakeart on Instagram to find out more.

43. DARI BERG is a Los Angeles-based artist who creates bold aesthetic statements with her colourful geometric paintings. Architecture and Jewellery Design studies in London and Florence have greatly influenced her work. For more information, visit www.daribergart.com or follow Dari on Instagram @daribergart

44. MORGAN SMALEY is an abstract visual artist who incorporates vibrant colours, dramatic lines and organic movement to portray a scene imaginable only in your most whimsical dreams. Morgan has created a wide variety of collections which were inspired by her profound connection with nature. Visit www.morgansmalley.com and follow @mksmalleyart on Instagram to discover more.

45. KATIE EDWARDS is a self-taught emerging abstract artist who is inspired by the places she travels to and the landscapes she sees. She works impasto-style using acrylic on canvas to create layer upon layer of texture and colour. Her works have been exhibited in both Australia and internationally. Katie's pieces fill a room with joy, wonder and excitement. Visit www.katieedwardsart.com and follow @katie_edwards_art on Instagram.

46. SARA BRYCE is a self taught abstract painter from Melbourne, Australia. She creates layered works full of vibrant colour and texture using acrylic on canvas, and pulling inspiration from architecture, nature and textiles. For more information, check out www.sarabryce.bigcartel.com or email sarabd12@gmail.com

47. DANETTE LANDRY is an American born artist, based in Paris, France. She is an abstract painter and sculptor, working mainly in bronze. The sculpture pictured is "Link of Humanity" bronze and patina, 9' x 20' x 20", 363 kg which is on Washington Street in downtown Yountville near the famous restaurant The French Laundry, California and is available for sale. Contact kim.cook.arts@yville.com for details. She is also represented in the Aerenagalleries & Gardens (www.aerenagalleries.com) and in Auberge Du Soleil, Napa Valley.